Board members and staff met with invited community partners to publicly say ‘thank you.’ Hors d’oeuvres, coffee and water were served.

Board members introduced themselves and shared the district’s vision and goals. A couple of students shared about their experiences in these partnership opportunities. Community partners were introduced and staff shared what those partnerships included.

Superintendent Garber then asked for feedback from the community on our partnerships, ideas for future partnerships and asked for attributes and skills they would find valuable in future employees.

The event ended with attendees mingling a bit before leaving.
